

Let the stronger man give to the man whose need is greater; let him gaze upon the lengthening path of life, for riches roll like the wheels of a chariot, turning from one to another.

Rig Veda

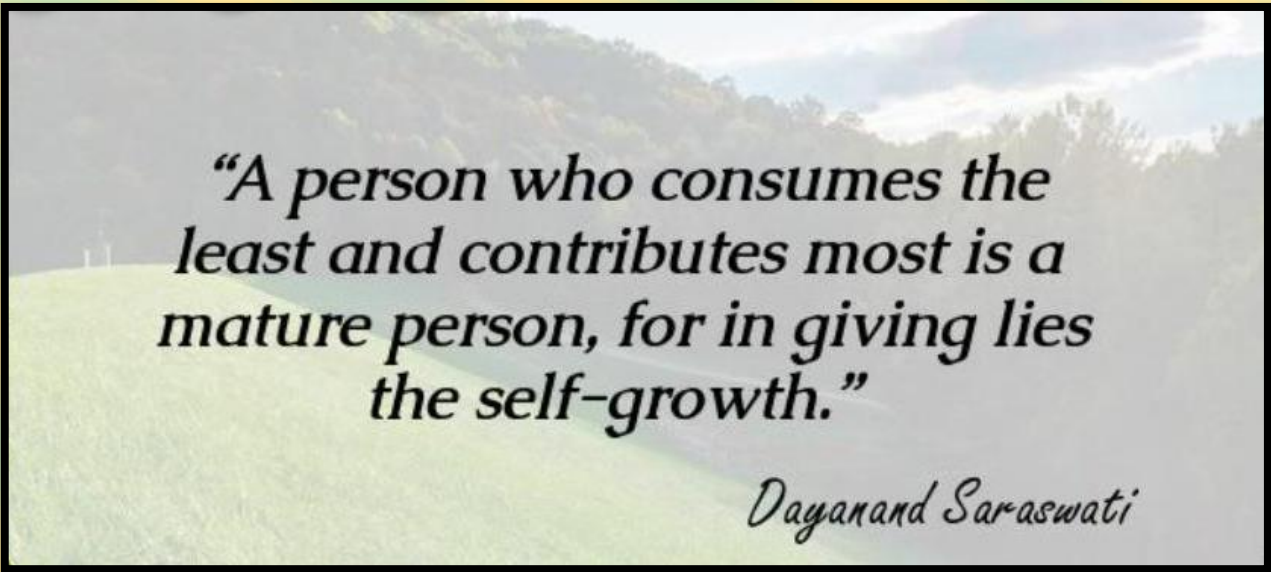

By self-dedication, one obtains consecration, by consecration one obtains grace; by grace one obtains faith and by faith is truth obtained.

Yajur Veda

Foreword

When there is harmony between the mind, heart and resolution, then nothing is impossible

Rig Veda

“A person who consumes the least and contributes most is a mature person, for in giving lies the self-growth.”

Dayanand Saraswati

The commendable conduct of man is shown by his discriminate treatment of merits and sympathetic regard for pleasure and pain, profit and loss of others. The contrary course is reprehensible.
